In August 2016, nine senior academic and practicing specialist vets will undertake an endurance motorbike trip from Johannesburg to Cape Town providing lectures to raise funds for three South African charities: Ethelbert Children's Home, The Highveld Horsecare Unit and The Bizana Project.

This will be the 6th year of Vets with Horsepower, so far raising over £400,000. 2016 will involve a journey of around 2,500 kilometres over 12 days. Along the way providing one day education events for horse owners and equine veterinarians. Come along, learn something new and make a donation.
